

Action Companies to build hotel during tough Economic Times

For Immediate Release:

Thursday, November 20, 2008

Syracuse, NY- Action Companies is breaking ground on Syracuse's newest multi-million dollar hotel project. The Holiday Inn Express will be located in Dewitt, NY and will boast a beautiful brick exterior, and consist of 81 room and suites, indoor pool, and meeting space.

Despite the hard economic times, and no government assistance, Jacob Wright, CEO is very excited to expand during this slow building period, and create new job opportunities right here in our community.

Action Companies will hold a ground breaking ceremony accompanied by city officials, community leaders and Media. This Event to be held at the construction site across from Home Depot, in Widewaters Parkway, Thursday, November 20th at 12noon. The event to be catered by the Quaker, Steak and Lube.

Action Companies, LLC has hired Action Management, a local management company in Syracuse, NY to oversee all operations of the new hotel. Currently, the Wingate by Wyndham-Syracuse and the Quaker Steak and Lube-Syracuse are two of the local businesses currently operating under Action Management.

Action Companies thanks the community and looks forward to future relations with the companies of Dewitt, and partnering with the businesses located in Widewaters Parkway.

###